

Sandra Ruby

Sandra's profession is as a teacher and educator. She taught Jr.-Sr. High students in the public schools in Indiana, pre-schoolers in Day Care and teenagers and college students as staff in the First UMC.

Sandra received a Bachelor of Science degree at Indiana State University and a Master of Liberal Arts at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Tx. She has held many offices in the United Methodist Church and in United Methodist Women as well as several ecumenical agencies. She also worked in many community activities.

Currently she is West District Lay Leader and serves on the Leadership Development Table in the Indiana Conference. In the fall of 2011 she led five workshops on John Wesley for the District. She is completing her fourth year as President of Lucille Raines Board of Directors, a 3/4 residence for persons recovering from substance abuse. She is President of her local unit of United Methodist Women at Trinity United Methodist Church in Crawfordsville.

For sixteen years she was employed by the Women's Division, of the General Board of Global Ministries, of the United Methodist Church and was assigned to the Dallas area for 10 years and in the Indianapolis area for six years.

In this capacity she facilitated workshops, training events and led retreats for conference and district leaders. As an educator, she has developed curriculum and written training manuals for retreats and workshops. She has taught in Regional and Conference Schools of Christian Mission for over 35 years.

For four years Sandra led a Bible Women's Training, sometimes called Gospel Women, in Fiji, Tonga and other Pacific Island nations. She was actively involved in training events for women in Cambodia, India and Korea. The Laubach Literacy for Social Change was the curriculum.

Sandra and her husband, Russell, have two grown sons and two daughters-by-marriage, four grand daughters (Krista and Heather in USA; Pim and Poo in Thailand). She likes to travel, read, visit with friends and spend time with her grandchildren. She lives in Crawfordsville, Indiana.
