Mr. Andy Denton

Andy Denton has served as the branch manager of Regions bank in Thomasville since July of 2016. Before working with Regions, Andy operated an independent insurance agency for fifteen years in Calhoun, GA. While living in Georgia, he served as a Lay Speaker and Lay Leader in the North Georgia Conference – Dalton District at Nellie Peters United Methodist Church and spoke to congregations throughout northwest Georgia.

Andy was born in Detroit Michigan but grew up in Thomasville. He and his wife Sheryl relocated to Thomasville in 2015 to care for aging parents. He is a past chairman and executive board member of the Thomasville Chamber of Commerce, chairs the Clarke County Development Foundation board, and serves on an advisory council at Thomasville High School. Andy is active at Thomasville Baptist Church as an usher and Sunday School teacher.

One of Andy's responsibilities as a Regions Next Step Elite team member is offering public service presentations around personal and business financial wellness around southwest Alabama. He brings with his presentation a vast knowledge and experience in financial matters, as well as a genuine Christian experience and influence.
