Prayer for Illumination

Rev. June Jernigan

Lord Jesus,
We would eat and live with You above,
teach us to love, for You are Love.
Touch our eyes and make us see
The truth within your word concealed,
and in broken bread our Lord, revealed.

Scripture Lesson

Luke 24:13-35

Sermon

Seeing is Not Believing

Invitation and Confession

Bishop David Graves

Jesus, you are the head of your body the church.
We confess that we have often shared your table without perceiving your body.
We have exchanged peace with one another in worship, while trading whispers at private suppers.
We wanted to get ours first, because we feared being left hungry.
We have sought the triumph of revival and resurrection without the humility of the cross. What you have offered as a gift, we have tried to seize by rights.
We have eaten and we have drunk judgment on ourselves.
Forgive us we pray. So that every member of your body may be nourished to join your work in the healing and strength of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Scriptural Communion and Baptismal Remembrance

Bishop David Graves

Lift up your hearts and give thanks to God.
Blessed are you, O God, who sent Jesus, nurtured in the water of a womb

To become flesh and dwelt among us.
He knew our needs and our weakness in the body,
And he nourishes us with his own strength.
He ate with sinners and tax collectors
He fed his disciples with loaves and fishes,
He cooked for them beside the sea,
And offered to meet us wherever we feed the least of those who bear his name.
Hasten the day when we can share your table together, and bind us now by your Holy Spirit that we may be the Body of Christ.
And in the gift of water, call to our remembrance the hope to which we were called in one Lord: one faith, one baptism, and one God of all who is over all and through all and in all Amen.
